

Service-Learning and Dropout Prevention: Meaningful Curriculum for Alternative Education

Friday, April 16, 2010

8:30 a.m. –3:30 p.m.

Renaissance Hotel—Indianapolis North

11925 N. Meridian St. Carmel, Indiana 46032, Phone: 1-317-816-0777

Cost: $25 conference fee

(Includes materials, continental breakfast, lunch, & snack)

Interested in attending a one day conference on a Friday whose materials, resources, and documents you can immediately implement on a Monday? Teachers and service-learning technical advisors from across the State of Indiana will provide participants with all that they need to begin planning and implementing curriculum in their programs that meets the diverse needs of students enrolled in dropout prevention and alternative education environments. Participants will receive CDs with documents, lesson plans, materials, and be provided time to work 1:1 with team members and advisors. As an alternative education regional meeting, Sue Foxx will be in attendance and a facilitator.

- | | |
|------------|--|
| 8:30 | Registration |
| 9:00 | What is Service-learning? How can it support alternative educ? |
| 10:30 | Meeting with Exemplar Programs |
| 12:00–1:00 | Lunch (Provided with Time for Interaction) |
| 1:00 | Curriculum Work with Peers and 1:1 Support |
| 3:00 | Technical Assistance and Closing |

Andrew Conway
Indiana Department of Education
Office of Integrated Services
317-232-9105 {phone}
317-232-0589 {fax}
151 W. Ohio Street
Indianapolis, IN 46204
aconway@doe.in.gov

*For further information contact Michael Slavkin at msslavkin@usi.edu or to register go to <http://www.usi.edu/extserv/academic/conferences.asp>
Registrations for the conference and CEUs only taken until April 14th!!*